

The Nukes Ukulele Workshop

Hawera Auto Court Egmont Show 2016

The Nukes are far more than a ukulele band. They are high entertainment. Part vaudeville, part rat-pack, part musical car crash. This talented trio deliver an engaging mix of humour and originality that audiences love. The innocent little uke is the instrument of choice and audiences will be staggered by what they are able to achieve with it. Great song writing, musicianship and 3-part harmony combine to create a truly memorable experience. The Nukes have within a few years of being together toured in NZ and Australia and performed at many of NZ's finest festivals from Bluff's Oyster festival to WOMAD and the Auckland and Canterbury Folk Festival's. The Nukes will be performing and running free workshops at the Hawera Auto Court Egmont Show Saturday 19th and Sunday 20th November

For the workshops you will need to bring your own uke and a music stand would be useful. Workshop will be in the morning on both days on the shearing stand shade if dry and under the grandstand if wet. 10.00 am on Saturday and 9.30am on Sunday. Song sheets will be provided. And all workshop participants will be invited to perform with the Nukes. Workshop participants are required to pay the show entry fee $10, Adult $3 Child under 14.

To book your space at the workshops, register at the show office using this form or fire us through an email with your name and phone number.
